Walnuts Add Zest to Grilled Sandwiches

The first thing a cookout calls for is coffee — a big camper's potful brewed over an open fire. Then, with the aroma of the coffee to spur you on, prepare the rest of the trappings.

Instead of the familiar hot dogs and hamburgers, why not try tangy cheddar-walnut sandwiches for a delicious change? They're filled with a blend of sharp cheese and chopped walnuts. Go-wilts include cole slaw, deviled eggs, assorted relishes — and, of course, the big, fragrant potful of coffee.

Just in case you've never brewed coffee in the open, here are the easy directions. Allowing a quart-and-a-half of water for eight servings, measure the water into a large, clean pot. When the water boils, move the pot to one side so the water stags hot, but is not actually boiling.

Now, add eight approved coffee measures (or one level measuring cup) of regular grind coffee. Stir the brew for half a minute and then let it steep over very low heat for ten minutes more. Just before serving, add a few drops of cold water to settle the grounds. And there you have eight deli-icious cups of coffee, picnic style.

GRILLED CHEDDAR-WALNUT SANDWICHES
3 cups grated sharp cheddar cheese
1 cup chopped walnuts
¾ cup mayonnaise
¼ cup sharp cooked salad dressing
sandwich bread
Combine all ingredients except bread; blend well. Spread between slices of bread to make nine or 10 sandwiches on both sides with melted butter. Grill over hot coals.

COTTON AND JEANS DANCE
Torrance National League will have their second dance of the season from 9 p.m. to 2 a.m. Saturday at the Elks Hall, 1820 Abalone St., Cotton and jeans will be worn. Music will be provided by the Ken Perkins band. Tickets will be sold at the door. A money tree will be featured.
